Arthur Williamson.

Alllegretto.

The first system of the score features a treble clef staff with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a 6/8 time signature. The tempo is marked "Alllegretto". The piano accompaniment consists of a treble and a bass staff. The treble staff contains a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, including a triplet of eighth notes. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

The third system shows the vocal line with the lyrics "heart, my heart, my heart hath its love. The sea hath its pearls, the". The piano accompaniment continues with a similar rhythmic pattern. The vocal line has a slight upward inflection at the end of the phrase.

heav'n hath its stars. But my heart, my heart, . . . my heart hath its love.

The fourth system concludes the piece with the lyrics "heav'n hath its stars. But my heart, my heart, . . . my heart hath its love." The piano accompaniment features a final cadence with a 7-measure rest at the end of the treble staff.

Great are the sea and the heav'n. Yet greater is my heart. And fairer than pearls and stars.

Flash-es and beams my love. flash-es and beams my
