Vivace.

The musical score is written in 2/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The piano part is written in two staves (treble and bass clef) and features a consistent rhythmic accompaniment of eighth notes. The vocal line is written in a single staff with lyrics underneath. The lyrics are: "The spar-row told it to the robin. The robin told it to the wren. Who passed it on with sweet remark. to". The score is divided into four systems, each with a vocal staff and a piano staff. The tempo is marked "Vivace." at the beginning.

thrush and bob - a - zink and lark, The news that dawn had come a - gain, The news that dawn had come a - gain.

The second system of handwritten musical notation. It features a vocal line in treble clef with lyrics "news that dawn had come a - gain, The". Below it is a piano accompaniment consisting of two staves: a right-hand part in treble clef and a left-hand part in bass clef. The music continues in the same key and time signature.

The third system of handwritten musical notation. It features a vocal line in treble clef with lyrics "news that dawn had come a - gain.". Below it is a piano accompaniment consisting of two staves: a right-hand part in treble clef and a left-hand part in bass clef. The music continues in the same key and time signature.

The fourth system of handwritten musical notation, which appears to be a continuation of the piano accompaniment. It consists of two staves: a right-hand part in treble clef and a left-hand part in bass clef. The music concludes with a double bar line. There is a sharp sign (#) on the right-hand staff in the final measure.
