

"Marry me now."

Song and chorus

Act III

From "And so to bed" (J. B. Fagan)

Music by Arthur Williamson.

Song & chorus from Act III
"And so to bed" (J. B. Jagau.)

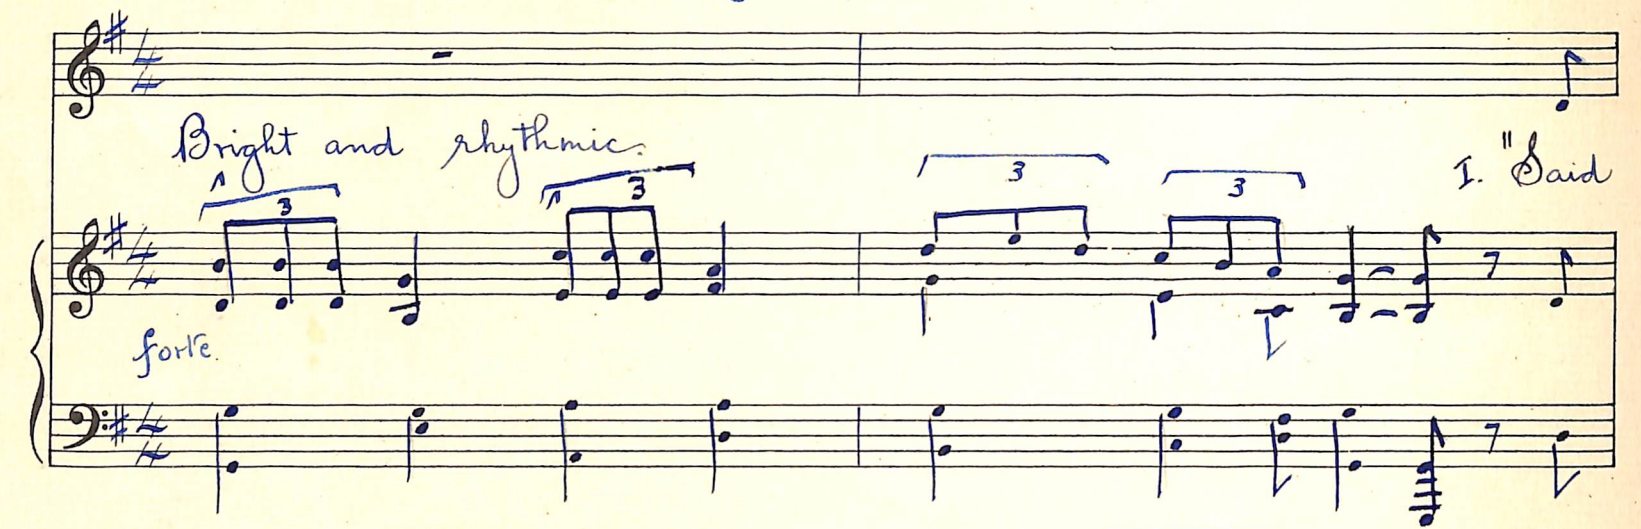

"Marry me now" — Arthur Williamson.

J. B.

Bright and rhythmic.

forte.

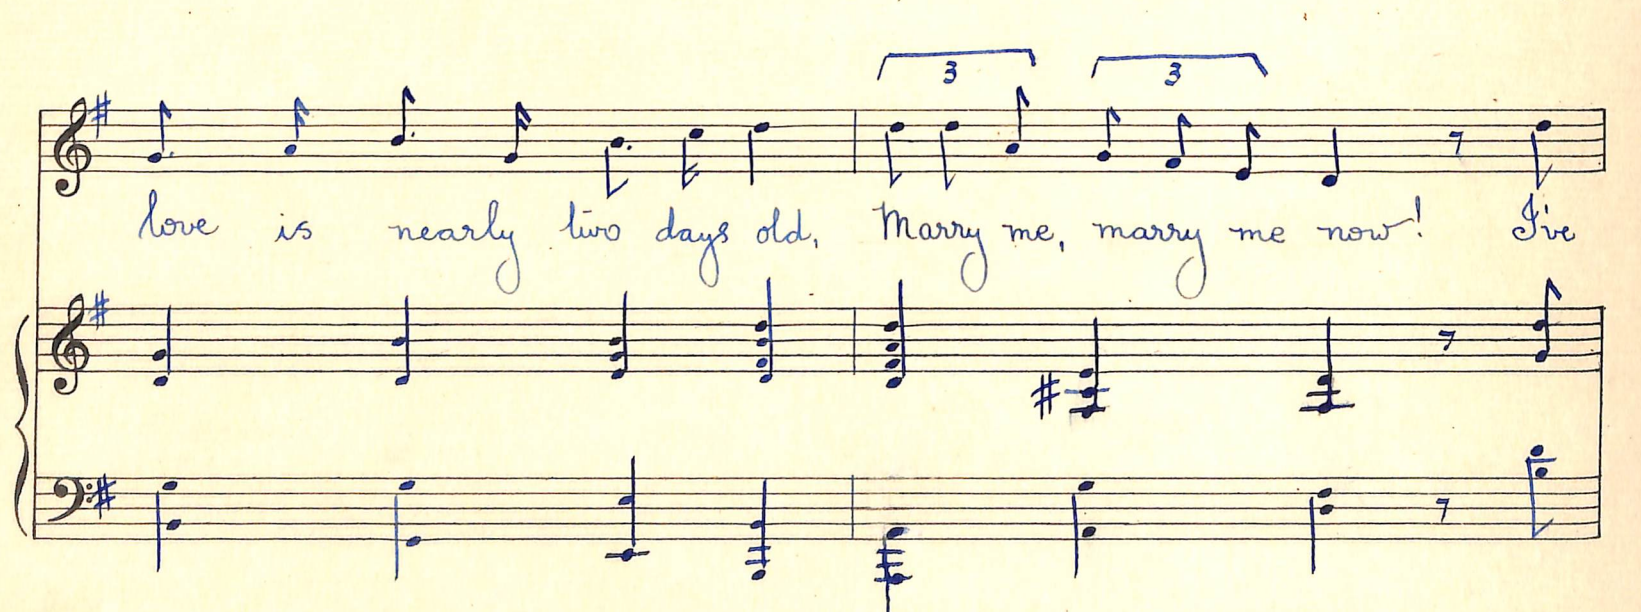

I. "Said

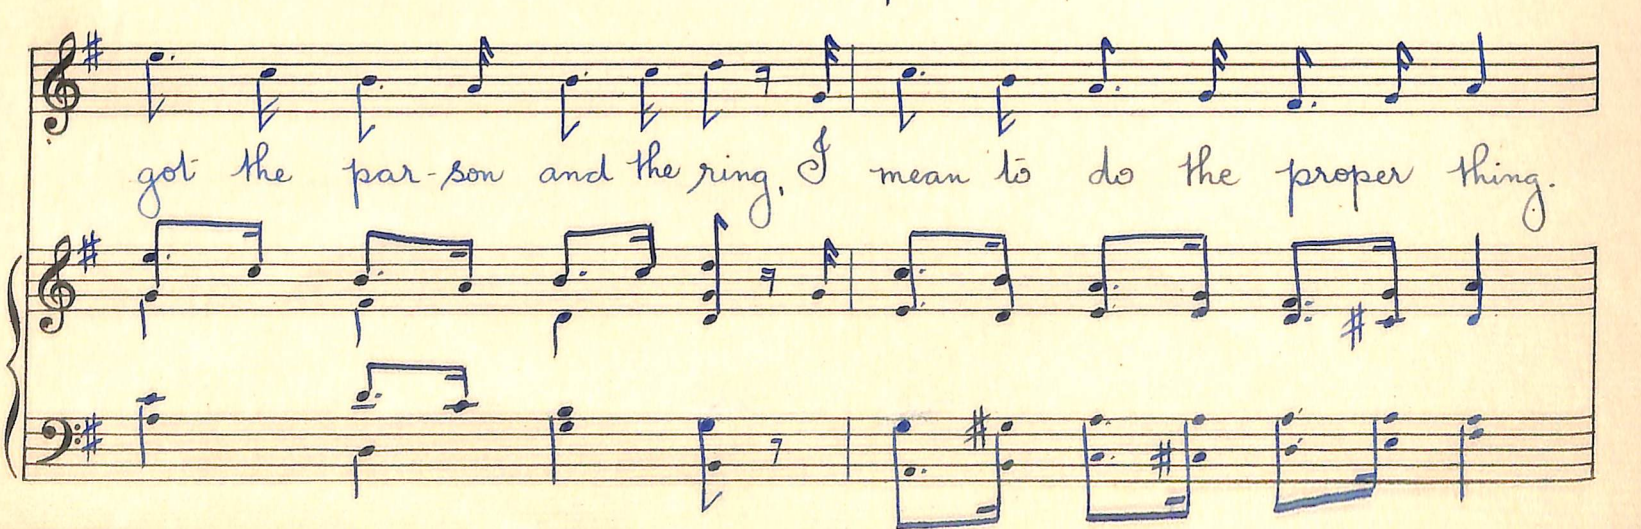

Brawny Bill, the sailor bold Oh, marry me now! Our love is nearly two days old, Marry me, marry me now! I've got the par-son and the ring, I mean to do the proper thing.

Chorus.

Marry me now, marry me now, Marry me, marry me now.

ff cres.

II

"You see I've got to sail away,
Oh, marry me now!
I'd hate to miss my wedding day,
Marry me, marry me now!
For life is short and love is long,
And once we're spliced we can't go wrong.
Marry me now, marry me now,
Marry me, marry me now!"

III

"Heave to, my lass, and strike your sail,
Oh, marry me now!
A sailor lad will never fail!
Marry me, marry me now,
You may not see him once a year,
But when he's there he'll make you cheer.
Marry me now, marry me now!
Marry me, marry me now!"

19/10/37.
A.B.W.