Exception to Rule

unless when joined together the words form a complete single concept and are really Adjectival Phrases - see Bingham Rule 11.

These ^{words qualifying} nouns and adjectives are not really in the infinitive ^{word}, though they have -a or -ni, the signs of the infinitive, before them.

Te Rua ni hata Te Hoi ni ngana Te ra ni haka

~~unless the words are joined together form a complete single concept~~

"Te Ba-a hoi" "Te hana-a hata" "Te haka-a hoi"

"Te haka-a hoi" you can't say te haka-a te hoi

a te hoi-a-a te haka but haka-a te hoi and ~~haka~~ hoi-a te haka

^{note} The ~~same~~ qualifying words may be in the ^{true} infinitive or not according to the words it is joined to ~~in the sentence~~. Example:-

~~Te haka-a hoi~~ Ka hoi te (haka-a hoi) aei.

Ka hoi haka-a te hoi aei.

Nan Tekou

Anna The Definite Article

Rule

no word using the suffix -n ^{or ni} ^{or ni} takes a definite article if it stands in a Possessed form.

Examples

~~I aki ata ⁿⁱ ~~ni~~ te awata~~

I aki ata ⁿⁱ bue-n tenaei = I aki ata ara bue tenaei.

Enga roa-n te wa = Enga ara roa te wa

~~except ^(or not) the words joined by a possessive concept~~

~~Te roa-n ni bue~~

i.e. unless the suffixed -n ^{or ni} ~~is~~ ^{is} be replaced by ara ^{the possessive form} ~~it is not~~ ^{in the} a Possessed form ^{see note to Bughu - Rule 4.}

Conceptually

reminds you of the loc of Prepositional phrases will not take a definite article.

Examples

Buaker = bought. Buako-ni-kai, not to buako-ni-kai.

Q Tea ae ko roa-ni i nuka-n te aba.

A I roa buaker-n te nage not I roa te buaker te nage
I see medal of rubbish.

Connectives of Location

rules

1. The Connectives of Location vary according to whether the object or objects qualified are near or far from the speaker or hearer or both or in space or time.
2. When the intention is simply to affirm a quality or action of an object or objects near or far use the connectives having the least force of location - that is "ae" or "aika".

(Rule 1 also applies when using Pronominal adjectives).

Examples

- (1) I kaea te reta aunoa a I kaea te reta aunoa kimitoto aunoa.
- Since the letter, when read, will be near the person written to.
- (2) 9 Ko nga ta Karubuke aunoa mauna?
- The ship being far from the speaker & from speaker too.
A. Te Karubuke ae obobaki.
- As it simply affirms a quality of the ship - Rule 2.
- (3) Consequently, when two things have been noticed by a speaker, the former when mentioned subsequently will be referred to as ae or ake (being farther in time) and the latter as ae or aika (being nearer in time).

a. Ranelebo

In the case of Ranelebo, they used the hair, not for eating but for dressing the hair.

The last cutting was when the boy was about 14.

^{3 or 4 years}
ear ~~cut~~ at the first appearance of the moon, according to the length of the hair first at about 2 when it could walk.

When the hair was long, the child could get up himself, it was not until the last cutting he could not get up until about 1 year.

Inhamei Island

nei mee of Tahimotang

name of Land Te Uou (Swimming)

Belonged to her father's brother - Tebakatu

A man called Hinian asked Tebakatu to look after him. His relatives at first refused but Hinian promised him ~~was~~ a piece of land in front of the old man in the hameaba. He also went to the R.G. to have Tebakatu's name put against the land. Tebakatu died and Hinian's took the land back.

nei mee's father is alive at Tahimotang - Kamari.

Tebakatu has no children.

Hinian is now dead. He wasn't old but had crooked arms and a funny head & could not look after himself. His only son was Teneti. He was the head of Aonuka clan & spoke for Tahimotang.

Lead left of Rei Karkimang to his godson Rei Kama

Rei K. had a quarrel with his husband & ran away from him. Before she ran away amaku & Karkotaka divided her leads. Both leads were in amaku's share.

- Karkotaka -

She was looked after by some else & she stated that the leads belonged to her own son. K. the said that the leads had better be left with Rei Kama.

"Te ala-a-tua" to Rei Buea who actually looked after her.
