GAS ATTACKS

1000

IN NEXT WAR"

IN NEXT WAR"

Specialists Review

Medical Progress

Medical Progress

Muchical Progress

AUCKLAND. September:

The common belief that civilians in the control of proper in the control of annihilation being that civilians in the control of annihilation by an aertal gas attack in any future war is discounted by a member of the progress of annihilation by an aertal gas attack in any future war is discounted by the control of the British party for the common of the British party for the State of the Control of the British party for the State of the Control of the British party for the State of the Control of the British party for the State of the Control of the British party for the State of the State of the State of the Control of the British party for the State of the British party for the State of the State of the State of the British party for the State of the Sta war and was twice mentioned in dispatches.

The then set war, "he said, "casual, "The said, "casual, "the said, "casual, "the said, "casual, "the said, "casual, "casual conversa inocuration against classes germs and equestion as to the danger of the different types which might be dropped from planes would go a long attack, Colonel Ellis said. By means of radio and co-operation, men and women outside wearing gas masks and other protective clothing could warn seeple in their homes of the extent and lumition of the danger.

on the different spras which nighting of the different spras which nighting the strength of the different spras which night was toward combating this form of a strack, Colone Ellis and the processor of the sprash of the processor of the danger.

Ambulance Air Fleets a different sprash of the s

Although no results have been pub-ned, present indications of the work very hoseful," said Dr. H. S. Sout-a noted Loudon authority on the of radium, in discussing vesearch for the new technique for trea" run titar is also one of the B.M.A. def-

adv. 3.9.35

FROM AIR

3—8EP. 1935

Menace Exaggerated,
Says British Doctor

"FEWER CASUALTIES"

The energy of the rays given out of the colousal, said Dr. Southar, and the colousal said Dr. Southar, and often led to the dreaded meningilis, and a low an own and continuary operation.

Prolongation Of Life

Health Insurance Schemes The opinion that a health insurance analomical display, which includes the property of the property meirology section of the corners. He is a companied by Mrs. Bellourne. He is a companied by Mrs. Barmwell.

Another representative is Dr. Richert and the section of the class and the section of the section of the section of the section of the class and the section of the section of the section of the sect

Cedu. 3-9-35 Pacific Health Conference

Many matters of mportance will be defined by the matters of importance will be defined by the matters of mportance will be defined by the matter of matters of matter of the matter of t

STRIKINGLY interesting and educational exhibits of anatomical work and the nutritive qualities of various foods are shown in two of the sections of the medical exhibition at the Adelaide University, which opened yesterday. yesterday.

VITAMINE CHAMPION

ways.

Sugar and lard have calories and nothing else. Nuts are rich in calories and phosphorus, amply equipped with iron and calcium, and fairly well off for vitamines.

From many other interesting exhibits here, you may learn that the brain of a racehorse differs from the brains of other horses, because the speed of its travelling develops certain characteristics that show in the brain.

NEW SOCIETY

FORMED HERE Blood Transfusion

PEW organisations have accomplished so much good in an uncentrations way as the South Australian tentations way as the South Australian been officially formed with Sir Henry Simpson Newland as president, after basic seven years,
At a meeting at Covent Garden, King
William street, the following council
William street, the following council
Menry
Henry
Simpson
Newland
Grash
Henry

Cycle Club of S.A., and affiliated bodies, The following were executive committee to draw up the constitution:—Col. S. R. Burston, Dz. F. R. Hone and D. G. McKay, Chef Officer G. J. Plenty, and Mr. J. T. Massey. Mr. D. S. Foy was appointed organizer and Mr. Wal. J. Murphy secretary.