THE DR. DAVIES-THOMAS SCHOLARSHIP.—

At the meeting of the University Senate on Wednesday afternoon the statutes of the Dr. Davies-Thomas Scholarships were approved of. It is provided that "Whereas Mrs. Davies-Thomas has given the sum of £400 for the present purpose of founding two scholarships to be called after the late Dr. Davies-Thomas, and the Council of the University of Adelaide have agreed to invest that sum and to apply the income thereof in the manner specified in these statutes: It is hereby provided that in consideration of the receipt by the University of the above-mentioned sum:—

1. The scholarships shall be called the Dr. Davies-Thomas Scholarships, and shall be competed for annually. 2. Each scholarship shall be of the value of £10, and shall be awarded to the best student in each of the third and fourth years of the M.B. course who shall be placed in the first class. 3. Each scholar shall be credited with the said sum of £10 towards payment of his or her fees." The mover of the adoption of the statutes referred to the late Dr. Davies-Thomas as one of the most brilliant men the colony had known—a remark which was cordially received by all present.

26/11/96

Registrar

THE UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE.

A meeting of the Senate was held in the University, North-terrace, on Wednesday afternoon. The Warden, Mr. Frederic Chapple, B.A., B.Sc., presided over a large attendance.

Mr. Frederic Chapple, B.A., B.Sc., was unanimously re-elected Warden of the Senate, while Mr. T. Ainsley Caterer was reappointed Clerk of the Senate. There were eight nominations for the six vacancies on the Council, the following gentlemen being elected:— Rev. David Paton, M.A., D.D., Mr. R. Barr Smith, Mr. James Henderson, B.A., Hon. J. L. Stirling, LL.B., M.L.C., Sir Charles Todd, K.C.M.G., M.A., F.R.S., and Mr. William Mitchell, M.A., D.Sc.

The Senate approved of the following:— Statutes of the Dr. Davies-Thomas scholarships; repeal of Regulation XV. of the degree of LL.B. and new regulation substituted; repeal of Regulation I. of the Preliminary Examination and new regulation substituted; new Regulation VII. to be added to the regulations of the Preliminary Examination; repeal of regulations, clause 6 of Regulation II. and Regulation V. of the Junior Public Examination and new Regulations I. and V. and new clause 6 to be substituted; repeal of regulations, clause 7 of Regulation II. and Regulations V., VI., VIII. of the Senior Public Examination and new Regulations I., V., VI., and new clause 7 of Regulation II. and VIII. to be substituted; repeal of the regulations of the M.B. course, and new regulations to be substituted.

The WARDEN said although it was perhaps somewhat irregular for the occupant of the chair to do so, he could not allow the occasion to pass without referring to the loss they had all sustained in the death of the late Vice-Chancellor, Mr. Hartley. He had been associated with the University from its beginning. He (the speaker) could go back to 1876, when shortly after his arrival in the colony he first took part in the University meetings, and at the time the late Mr. Hartley was in the very forefront with reference to the establishment of the University. There had scarcely been a meeting of the Senate since that time at which he had not been present. Certainly there had not been any important movement in connection with the University in which he had not taken a leading part. Even at the committee meetings of the Senate it had always been felt that he was a leader, and he was ready to do anything in the way of work for the benefit of the University, and his proposals were always accepted immediately. It was somewhat difficult for a friend to speak. It was, however, his bounden duty as Warden not to allow the occasion to pass. Every one would feel that a great ornament to the debate, a help to discussion, and one whom they had grown to respect was absent, and would be never more. He moved that a suitable expression of the deepest sympathy on the part of the Senate be conveyed to Mrs. Hartley.

The CHANCELLOR, Chief Justice Way, seconded the motion. The Warden had already expressed his sentiments, and there was nothing left for him to say.

The motion was unanimously carried.

THE LATE INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF SCHOOLS.

—Mr. Frederic Chapple, B.A., B.Sc., speaking at the meeting of the Senate on Wednesday afternoon, made feeling reference to the loss the University had sustained in the death of the Vice-Chancellor, Mr. J. A. Hartley. He could go back to 1876, and had always found that Mr. Hartley was in the very forefront of the University movement in the colony. They had scarcely a meeting since that time at which he had not been present, and certainly there had not been any important movement in connection with the University in which he had not taken a leading part. He moved that a suitable expression of the deepest sympathy on the part of the Senate be conveyed to Mrs. Hartley. The Chancellor, the Chief Justice, seconded the motion, which was carried unanimously.
