EXCHANGE OF PROFESSORS.

PASSAGE MONEY REDUCED.

LONDON, July 30.

As the result of representations made by Dr. J. W. Barrett, C.M.G., of Melbourne, Professor Darnley Naylor, of Adelaide, and Mr. H. E. Bartl, Registrar of the University of Sydney, who attended the recent Congress of Universities, the Directors of the Orient and P. & O. Companies have agreed to reduce the passage money for professors exchanged by British and Australian Universities by 10 per cent. return fares, and to the extent of 15 per cent. single fares.
