SCIENCE INSTITUTE.

- Q. 23. Sir Frank Heath's Recommendations.

The Need for Research.

The Prime Minister (Mr. Bruce) on Monday released for publication the recommendations made by Sir Frank Heath for the recommendations made by Sir Frank Heath for the recommendations. The Commonwealth Institute of Science and Industry, together with certain notes on these recommendations.

The recommendations are:—

1. The amending Bill foreshadowed by the Government in the Governor-General's speech should define the purpose of the reorganized institute, as follows:—

congenited institute, as follows—

(i) It should provide for the training of come unit and voquen in scientific research to the control of th title aspects of policy.

The institute should consist of the consist Minister, and the advisory to the Minister. The council of consist of a Chairman and eight abors; the Chairman and two members are appointed by the Governor-General a term of six years in the first instance thereafter on such a system of rota-as may be preservised by the Governor-as may be preservised by the Governor-as may be preservised by the Governor-as may be preservised by the Governor-more may from time to time determine, where the best proportion at defined in the present of the Act, consisting of the Prime Minister for the time the being and his advisory council to the prime the time being and his advisory council to the search in Science and Industry, but that it shall not be a part of the present Prime to the present Act, two properties of the present and the present and the members of the members of the superior of the property of

NEWS. 24-3.26 X CHAMBER MUSIC

Adelaide Asked to Lead

REG. 23.3.26

Apr. 24.3.26 GENERAL NEWS

GOVERNMENT HOUSE GROUNDS.

SCATTERED SHOWERS ON THE

22-3:26

NEWS

AUSTRALIAN HISTORY

Recognition by University