

18th. November 1948.

Dear C.G.

Many thanks for your note of congratulations on the Darwin Medal. It is a peculiar pleasure to have been awarded the medal which bears your grandfather's name, as I think I may have done something to get his work better appreciated by the present generation than it was by the last.

Yours sincerely,