

Dec. 15. 35

4 CHURCH HILL
EDINBURGH

Dear Professor Fisher

Many thanks for the book. I have not of course had yet time to do more than dip into it, but it is very much the kind of thing I like and I shall read it with interest.

I hope your researches in genetics are prospering. I am still worried as to how you can regard the selection of 20 cooperative additive genes as anything but a straight matter of "blending" inheritance.

Yours sincerely
C. Darwin