

December 12th, 1935

Dear Professor Darwin,

I do not know whether you would be interested to glance at this new book of mine. Physicists scarcely seem to need experimental design in the sense of what this book is about. but I know your interests are wide and hope you may like what I have done with the subject.

Yours sincerely,

"THE DESIGN OF EXPERIMENTS"