

August 16, 1941

Dear Mr Derwin,

Thank you for your letter of August 15th. I have sent Charles a copy of my letter to the address you give. I cannot imagine that anything in it could excite the strictest censor. However, the ways of officials, especially when new to their job, as so many now are, are often quite unpredictable.

Yours sincerely,