

April 27, 1937

Dear Miss Day,

I am enclosing quotations for this length of paper - nearly 16 pages. As you did the real work I certainly think your name should come first. On an alternative convention also you lose by being before me in the alphabet. I will have your corrected copy checked against mine, which I have now finished correcting.

Yours sincerely,