Dear Professor,

This note from a stranger will surprise you. As the pursuit of knowledge knows no barriers, I am tempted to contact you for a copy of ~~you~~ the reprint of your paper on "The Ma the matricul distributions used in the Com mon tests of Significance", published in Econometrica Vol 3 in the year 1935.

As the paper is not available to me, I had ~~to~~ to contact you.

To be excused for the inconvenience. Thanking you

Sincerely yours

Md. Fariduddin
