

11th April, 1958.

My dear Henry,

I am enclosing a draft intended to be good for ten minutes for the B.B.C. talk in July, which I believe you and Cyril Darlington are organizing, if it is not De Beer, in respect of the Darwin-Wallace Centenary.

Anyway, as you will certainly be giving the major address on the same occasion, I should like you to ^{be the first to} see my draft. ~~Send~~.

Sincerely yours,

Enc.
