

16th November, 1953.

My dear Henry,

Thank you for your letter. I am exceedingly glad that you think you can manage a visit here shortly after Christmas and I will certainly try to get to Oxford shortly thereafter. Indeed, Cyril Darlington has suggested a visit to see his new department about mid March.

Sincerely yours.