

1st November, 1951.

Dear Henry,

This is just a line to let you know I have had your note of October 25th and that I am looking forward to your visiting Cambridge some time this winter.

With this in view, I want you to know that I shall be away in India for nearly the whole of December.

Sincerely yours,