

27th. June 1949.

My dear Frechet,

I shall hope to come to the Congres International de Philosophie des Sciences with a view to participating in the interesting programme of discussions which you have arranged.

Please remember me cordially to your wife and to Professor Darmois, whom I shall hope to see in October.

Yours sincerely,