

March 12, 1940

Dear Garwood,

Yes, I will look at your paper on dosage mortality problems with pleasure. You do not say so, but I suppose you have taken up some problems other than those with which Bliss has dealt so thoroughly.

Yours sincerely,