

12th November, 1955.

Dear George,

It was a pleasure to receive your note on behalf of the R.S.S. and yourself on the award of the Copley Medal. It is indeed a rather unexpected award, since it is not long ago that statistical applications were regarded as quite peripheral in the natural sciences. Many thanks.

Yours sincerely,