

2 December 1950.

Dr A. Bradford Hill,
National Inst. for Medical Research,
Hempstead,
London, N.W. 3.

Dear Bradford Hill,

Thanks for sending me the reprint.

I wonder if you would think me impertinent if I asked you, how you are doing professionally, and whether you would like to hear of openings in Statistics, and if so what kind of job appeals to you.

Yours sincerely,