

1st June, 1957.

My dear Ted,

Thanks for your note. I hope I can be back in this country before you run away to Australia again, but I also hope, through Alf Cornish and Henry Bennett of Adelaide, who are conspiring in the matter, to get out to Australia sometime for another visit.

With all good wishes,

Yours sincerely,