

Enclosure

11th March 1935

My dear Irwin,

Perhaps you will be interested to see the enclosed letter from Jordan, in which he says that Monmort anticipated us both in the matter of randomisation. If, as I suppose, he is right, then Todhunter must have missed the point and does him much less than justice.

Yours sincerely,