

29th March, 1957.

My dear Irwin,

I only saw the December number of Methodological the other day, and, as I said, I do not want to prolong the controversy unnecessarily, and indeed it seems to be quite unnecessary to do more than wind it up with a very short statement. This I am enclosing.

Sincerely yours,

Enc. 'Comment on the Notes by Neyman, Casella, ...'