

30th. July 1947.

Dear Jackson,

Thanks for sending me your last letter with its resolution of the difficulties you had found in respect of mean age. It looks to me as though you were on solid ground in this matter.

I am very glad you enjoyed your stay in Cambridge, which I hope you will manage to repeat, and I will thank Heaton for you about the rooms.

Yours sincerely,