

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE
DEPARTMENT OF GENETICS.

Whittingehame Lodge,
44, Storey's Way,
Cambridge.

13th. March 1947.

Dear Jackson,

Thanks for your letter informing me about your visit to England. I shall hope to see you down here in May or June.

As to the temperature problem, I think your procedure is correct and the lower standard error would seem to be due to the fact that your method eliminates most of the seasonal variations. It seems to be the right standard error to use in comparing different species.

Yours sincerely,