

3rd. October 1950.

Dear Jackson,

Thank you for your kind note on what little I was able to do as chairman of the symposium. For me it certainly was a stimulating and interesting morning. What arrangements have been made for publication?

Yours sincerely,