

The Thatched Cottage
Clarendon Place

July 11

Dear Fisher,

Would you forgive me if I scratched for Thursday? Partly I dislike boats though I could tolerate them if I had some definite job to do; & partly I have been hearing some awful accounts of the state of the trains from London - Raven was in time for the 2.20 or something the other day and had to wait with 300 people, also crowded out, for the 3.10.
(I don't guarantee the times but that was the general idea.)

I have been meaning to ask you to come to Hall on a Sunday soon.
Harris (H.A.) particularly wants to talk to you.

Yours ever

Hewold Jefferys.
