

5 July 1944

Dear Jeffreys.

I certainly hope to catch the ten o'clock train myself, though we may have to leave a little early as the dinner is later than usual. There is usually, however, plenty of time, so I hope you will feel confident about coming.

Yours sincerely,