

18th. November 1948.

Dear Jeffreys,

I have not yet been able to find the published list of this year's Royal Society awards, but I have heard that you are among them, I presume for the Royal Medal in the non-biological sciences. In any case I should like to congratulate you most heartily.

Yours sincerely