

21 July 1933.

D. Caradog Jones, Esq.,
96 Watergate Flage,
Chester.

Dear Caradog Jones:

Many thanks for your congratulations. I am afraid it will be a long while before I can make any considerable progress, as a great deal of reorganisation will have to be done and I cannot reasonably expect the existing staff to be prepared for the change, indeed, I know they <sup>were led to</sup> ~~will~~ therefore expect the contrary. I must/introduce changes slowly, so as not to hurt feelings unnecessarily.

Yours sincerely,