

5th. January, 1943.

Dear Professor Keith,

It is most kind of you to write so helpfully, and you will be glad to hear that I received by the same post a very welcoming letter from Howarth. It is a great relief to me that my suggestion is not the mere nuisance which in other circumstances it might have been.

Yours sincerely,