

20th March, 1957.

Dear Tage Kemp,

I am a little disappointed by your reply about smoking, since I always regarded twin material to be at its best for multifactorial characters. However, it is no use discussing the matter if your doctors are unwilling to co-operate. Do they find the character of smoker or non-smoker to be too difficult to use in studies in cancer of the lung?

Sincerely yours,