

February 4, 1941

My dear Mather,

Thanks for your letter. If I really am President, and I think you are Secretary, do you not think we ought to get the Committee together with a view to some sort, however imperfect, of Meeting of the Society. I should hate the Society to die merely because of its thoughtless action last June. I will draft a circular letter to the Dog Committee and send it to you.

Yours sincerely,