

1st March, 1957.

My dear Bill,

Thanks for your letter and final words of wisdom for the troubled minds we have stirred up. You do not deal with (Miss?) Hogben, whose complaint seems to be addressed to me. I have, therefore, reassured her that the baby was not neglected!

Sincerely yours,