

---

9th July, 1956.

My dear Arthur,

Thanks for your note. I am sorry to have given you, I am afraid, a good deal of extra trouble, but Wiener is something of a controversial artist and knows very well how to divert attention from those many points on which he has been proved to be in error to others on which there is still some room for doubt.

Sincerely yours,