

5th November, 1955.

My dear Mourant,

I am enclosing your card for the Anniversary Dinner. I do not know where they will put us, for I have just heard that they have awarded me the Copley Medal this year. If possible I shall avoid replying on behalf of the Medallists, which must be a dreadful job to which I should be totally averse.

Sincerely yours,

Enc.