

5 January 1932.

Professor V. Romanovsky,
Kuilukskaia, 27,
Tashkend,
U.S.S.R.

Dear Prof. Romanovsky:

Please accept my (belated) good wishes for the coming year. I sincerely hope that your country may in time reap the rewards of the great efforts and sacrifices which are being made. My children are all happily well, but I have myself had a series of illnesses, which I hope are now over.

Yours sincerely,