

September 23, 1941

Dear Salisbury,

Thanks for your note. I suppose there is no hope of a meeting before Easter, but we might bear in mind the possibility of one then.

I am glad to hear about the book. If later you have spare proofs, remember that I should be much interested to see something more of it.

Yours sincerely,