

March 24, 1938

Dear McKenzie Taylor,

I am enclosing copy of the report sent to Bigsby. You will see that I differ from you on a number of points, none of which seems to be of any real importance for the main issue. You must have found the whole controversy exceedingly troublesome, and I have done my best to frame a report that will help rather than hinder in clearing it up.

Yours sincerely,