

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE
Department of Genetics.

Whittingeham Lodge,
44, Storey's Way,
Cambridge.

9th July, 1951.

My dear Wiener,

Thank you for your courteous letter. The reason why I continue to use the CDE notation is because, with the sole exception of yourself, every competent serologist in the world is accustomed to use it. This, I think, arises from it being a direct expression of the genetic and serological facts.

Yours sincerely,