Nebinyan was the last Two People Bay district native. His father's father saw Flinders.

Nebinyan's fathers were "gij-a burdon-ap-birder wani", makers of the burdon (heavy war spear). At Nebin's death, the gij burdong makers (bining gij burdong =making the burdon spear) of that district (Two People Bay, and apparently further inland) became extinct, all except Yagong, a blind old man now in Katanning.

Note : NGARNDIL had been "adopted" by his father 's relatives who lived in the Kojonap and Belgarap area (paternal descent). Ngarndil's boy and girl therefore enter the class of their father. This system is called "ngulingbara" or "walangalang" - changing from one side to another.

NGARNDIL = Ngirndil ngirndil = magic or "majet" wogal lying on tree.
