

A THESIS ON THE BASIC INTRUSIONS
OF BLINMAN.

By Peter F. Howard.

1949.

Honours thesis 1949
Supervisor: Professor Sir Douglas Mawson

ABSTRACT.

The Blinman dome is comprised of middle and upper Adelaide System rocks which were faulted and crushed and subsequently intruded in Post-Cambrian times. This diastrophism is discussed and petrological descriptions of the basic and related rocks submitted.

CONTENTS.

	Page.
1. Introduction.	1.
2. Notes to accompanying maps.	1.
3. Stratigraphy.	2.
4. Diastrophism and accompanying Intrusions.	5.
5. Effects of Residual Stress on Intrusions.	8.
6. Field Relations of Basic Rocks.	8.
7. Mineralogy.	12.
8. Petrology.	17.
9. Petrography.	20.
10. References.	41.